

In the name of God

University Green Management Policy

In conformity with the general policies of the resistance economy and consumption pattern reform, announced by the Supreme Leader, observing the passive defense considerations announced by the Ministry of Health, Treatment and Medical Education regarding the letter No. d/202/2288 dated 2015/09/20 and Green Management Instruction No. 6/98497 dated 2016/08/02 of the Management and planning organization, considering the indicators related to sustainable development including environment, energy management, waste management, water consumption management, transportation and education along with the implementation of energy management standards ISO 50001, technical inspection of engine rooms ISO 16001, In achieving the goals of the green management system (UNIVERSITY GREEN METRIC), this university tends to take the following steps:

- Managing and reducing the intensity of energy consumption in accordance with national and international standards
- Waste management and waste reduction to ensure environmental protection
- Improving the green balance management of the university in the field of using renewable energy technology
- Increasing employee participation in line with sustainable development goals

Isfahan University of Medical Sciences and Health Services, relying on God and the empathy and participation of all staff, in order to meet the requirements of the "Green University", will provide the necessary support to the affiliated units.

Dr. Tahereh Changiz

Chancellor of Isfahan University of Medical Sciences

Hamed Sadyq